

Weyerhaeuser Recreational Access Guidelines

Weyerhaeuser currently allows public access to our forestland, while making sure we can work safely, prevent damage to the environment, and safeguard company property. For current specific access information please call the Recreational Access Hotline for Weyerhaeuser in Washington at 1-866-636-6531.

The following rules are in effect at the Central Washington – Vail operating area:

1. The Vail tree farm is usually open for non-motorized recreational access. You can walk, bicycle, or ride horseback onto the tree farm. Please read the signs posted at each gate and follow the rules. In general, if a gate is open, no access is allowed because of active operations. Some areas may have signs prohibiting specific activities.
2. The Vail tree farm does open for motorized access only on four weekends during the fall hunting season. Check the recreation access hotline for the specific dates and times.
3. Certain activities are not allowed: No target shooting, No ATVs or motorcycles, No camping, fires or fireworks.
4. No smoking outside of vehicles. No littering or dumping of any materials.
5. Stay on improved roads and on your side of the road. No off-road activity is allowed.
6. Use headlights and seatbelts at all times while traveling.
7. Speed limit is 35 MPH unless otherwise posted or if driving and/or weather conditions require a reduction in speed.
8. Do not block gates with vehicles. Vehicles blocking gates can/will be towed at owner's expense.
9. No firewood cutting or removal of forest product/floral greenery. The only exceptions are berries and mushrooms picked for personal consumption.
10. Report illegal activities to local law enforcement.
11. Report vandalism and dumping activity by leaving a message at 360-446-3813.
